I am a third-semester Information Systems student with a strong enthusiasm for exploring and developing myself in the fields of scientific research, data science, data analysis, business, and programming. I actively contribute to various organizations and events, including serving as an athlete in UKM Penalaran, a sponsorship staff member at Nalarfest, and an intern as RTA staff in HMSI. - My strength is that I am always diligent, consistent, so I always try to do assignments within the given time limit. Apart from that, I can also work in a team and can direct the team to complete tasks in accordance with team goals. I am also the type of person who is able to adapt and is willing to develop in any field.
- My weakness is that I often forget, so to overcome this deficiency I usually take notes in notes and reminders on my cellphone calendar or on paper. Apart from that, in communicating, especially with many people, I am not fluent in handling this. I try to take part in events, webinars, etc. can train my communication.
